Refund Policy

- Full Full prepaid tuition fee will only be refunded if the student fails to obtain a Study Permit.
- International Students (Visa Refusal) International students who have been issued an official Letter of Acceptance from Columbia Academy are not eligible for a refund unless the official study permit application has been denied by Citizenship and Immigration Canada. In the event of a Study Permit application denial, fees are fully refundable minus the administration fee of $300. Refund applications will only be reviewed after the following documents have been submitted:
  - Request for Refund form
  - Refusal letter issued by Citizenship and Immigration Canada. The date of the refusal letter must be dated later than the most recent Letter of Acceptance.
- Note: We require the hard copy of the refusal letter, and we reserve the right to require notarization to validate authenticity.
- 1/2 of the prepaid tuition fee will be refunded if the student withdraws prior to the start of the program.
- 1/3 of the prepaid tuition fee will be refunded if the student withdraws within 15 days after the program starts.
The prepaid tuition fee will not be refunded under the following circumstances:
  - Student obtains a Study Permit or extended visa by use of the Letter of Acceptance from Columbia Academy.
  - Student is expelled or made to withdraw from the school due to breach of Code of Conduct policies, and/or other school policies as outlined in the student handbook in effect for the present semester.

- I hereby certify that the information above is truthful and accurate.
- I hereby agree to abide by all rules, regulations and policies of the school.
- I consent to the personal information collected on this form.
- I give my consent for the school to use my child's image in pictures, videos, or social media for school promotional material and for school related purposes.
